9 The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

10 Section 1. G.S. 90-95(e) reads as rewritten:

11 "(e) The prescribed punishment and degree of any offense under this Article shall be 12 subject to the following conditions, but the punishment for an offense may be increased 13 only by the maximum authorized under any one of the applicable conditions:

14 (1),(2) Repealed by Session Laws 1979, c. 760, s. 5.

15 (3) If any person commits an offense under this Article for which the 16 prescribed punishment includes imprisonment for not more than two 17 years, and if he has previously been convicted for one or more offenses
18 under any law of North Carolina or any law of the United States or any 19 other state, which offenses are punishable under any provision of this 20 Article, he shall be punished as a Class I felon;

- 1 (4) If any person commits an offense under this Article for which the 2 prescribed punishment includes imprisonment for not more than six 3 months, and if he has previously been convicted for one or more
4 offenses under any law of North Carolina or any law of the United 5 States or any other state, which offenses are punishable under any 6 provision of this Article, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall 7 be sentenced to a term of imprisonment of not more than two years or 8 fined not more than two thousand dollars ($2,000), or both in the 9 discretion of the court;
- 10 (5) Any person 18 years of age or over who violates G.S. 90-95(a)(1) by 11 selling or delivering a controlled substance to a person under 16 years
12 of age shall be punished as a Class E felon;
- 13 (5.1) Any person 20 years of age or over who violates G.S.
14 90-95(a)(1) by selling or delivering a controlled substance to 15 a person under 18 years of age shall be punished as a Class E 16 felon and shall be sentenced to a term of at least one year in 17 the State's prison. A person sentenced under this subdivision
18 must serve the mandatory term of imprisonment for one year.
19 During that time the prisoner is not eligible for early parole or 20 early release if sentenced as a youthful offender. The 21 sentencing judge may not suspend the mandatory one-year 22 term of imprisonment or place the person on probation for the 23 mandatory one-year term of imprisonment.
- 24 (5.2) Any person 20 years of age or over who commits an offense under 25 G.S. 90-95(a)(1) on school property or within 1,000 feet of the 26 boundary of real property used for a public or private school, college, 27 or university shall be punished as a Class E felon and shall be 28 sentenced to a term of at least two years in the State's prison; however, 29 for only this subsection, the transfer of less than 5 grams of marijuana
30 for no remuneration shall not constitute a delivery in violation of G.S.
31 90-95(a)(1). A person sentenced under this subdivision must serve the 32 mandatory term of imprisonment for two years. During that time the 33 prisoner is not eligible for early parole or early release if sentenced as 34 a youthful offender. The sentencing judge may not suspend the 35 mandatory two-year term of imprisonment or place the person on 36 probation for the mandatory two-year term of imprisonment.
- 37 (6) For the purpose of increasing punishment, previous convictions for 38 offenses shall be counted by the number of separate trials at which 39 final convictions were obtained and not by the number of charges at a 40 single trial;
- 41 (7) If any person commits an offense under this Article for which the 42 prescribed punishment requires that any sentence of imprisonment be 43 suspended, and if he has previously been convicted for one or more
44 offenses under any law of North Carolina or any law of the United

1 States or any other state, which offenses are punishable under any 2 provision of this Article, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall 3 be sentenced to a term of imprisonment of not more than six months or 4 fined not more than five hundred dollars ($500.00), or both in the 5 discretion of the court."

6 Sec. 2. This act shall become effective October 1, 1989, and shall apply to 7 offenses occurring on or after that date.
