1 A JOINT RESOLUTION AUTHORIZING THE LEGISLATIVE RESEARCH
2 COMMISSION TO CONTINUE TO STUDY PUBLIC TRANSPORTATION
3 FINANCING.

4 Whereas, Chapter 740 of the 1989 Session Laws authorized the Legislative
5 Research Commission to make a comprehensive study of the financing of public
6 transportation in North Carolina;

7 Whereas, the Legislative Research Commission established the Legislative
8 Research Commission Public Transportation Financing Study Committee;

9 Whereas, the Legislative Research Commission Public Transportation
10 Financing Study Committee began a study of the public transportation financing in 11 North Carolina, and contracting with the private sector for public transportation
12 services;

13 Whereas, the Legislative Research Commission Public Transportation
14 Financing Study Committee believes that many important public transportation issues,
15 such as city and regional bus transit, intercity rail service, and human service
16 transportation, need further examination;

17 Whereas, the Legislative Research Commission Public Transportation
18 Financing Study Committee could continue its comprehensive review of public
19 transportation financing in North Carolina, and could more fully address this important
20 issue;

21 Now, therefore, be it resolved by the Senate, the House of Representatives concurring:

22 Section 1. The Legislative Research Commission is authorized to continue its 23 comprehensive study of public transportation financing in North Carolina.
