The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

Section 1. Section 1 of Chapter 667 of the Session Laws of 1957 is rewritten to read:

"Section 1. The Stanly County Board of Commissioners consists of five members elected by the qualified voters of that county. In 1998, five members shall be elected. The three persons receiving the highest numbers of votes are elected to four-year terms and the two persons receiving the next highest numbers of votes are elected to two-year terms. In 2000 and quadrennially thereafter, two persons are elected to four-year terms. In 2002 and quadrennially thereafter, three persons are elected to four-year terms. Terms begin on the first Monday in December of the year of election and continue until successors are elected and qualify."
