8 (1) Basic rights. Victims of crime, as defined by law, shall be entitled to certain 9 basic rights, including the right as defined by law to be informed of and to be present at 10 public hearings and to be heard at sentencing or at any other time deemed appropriate by 11 the court, to the extent that these rights do not interfere with the constitutional or statutory 12 rights of the accused.

13 (2) No money damages; other enforcement. Nothing in this section shall be 14 construed as creating a claim for money damages against the State, a county, a 15 municipality, or any of the agencies, instrumentalities, or employees thereof. The General 16 Assembly may provide for other remedies to ensure adequate enforcement of this section.

1 (3) No ground for relief in criminal case. Nothing in this section shall be 2 construed to authorize a court to set aside or to void a finding of guilty or not guilty or an 3 acceptance of a plea of guilty or to set aside any sentence imposed or any other final 4 disposition in any criminal case."

5 Sec. 2. The amendments set out in Section 1 of this act shall be submitted to 6 the qualified voters of the State at a special election to be held on November 7, 1995,
7 which election shall be conducted under the laws then governing elections in the State.
8 Ballots, voting systems, or both may be used in accordance with Chapter 163 of the 19 certification. The Secretary of State shall enroll the amendment so certified among the 20 permanent records of that office.
