A BILL TO BE ENTITLED
AN ACT TO MODIFY THE RIGHTS OF A DECEDENT'S SPOUSE.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

Section 1. Article 1 of Chapter 30 of the General Statutes is repealed.

Section 2. Chapter 30 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new

Article to read:

“ARTICLE 1A.
"ELECTIVE SHARE.

"§ 30-3.1. Right of elective share.

(a) Elective Share. – The surviving spouse of a decedent who dies domiciled in this State has a right to claim an ‘elective share’, which means an amount equal to (i) the applicable share of the Total Net Assets, as defined in G.S. 30-3.2(c), less (ii) the value of Property Passing to Surviving Spouse, as defined in G.S. 30-3.3(a). The applicable share of the Total Net Assets is as follows:

(1) If the decedent is not survived by any lineal descendants, one-half of the Total Net Assets.

(2) If the decedent is survived by one child, or lineal descendants of one deceased child, one-half of the Total Net Assets.

1           (3) If the decedent is survived by two or more children, or by one or more 2           children and the lineal descendants of one or more deceased children, or 3           by the lineal descendants of two or more deceased children, one-third of 4           the Total Net Assets.

5           (b) Reduction of Applicable Share. – In those cases in which the surviving spouse 6 is a second or successive spouse, and the decedent has one or more lineal descendants 7 surviving by a prior marriage but there are no lineal descendants surviving by the 8 surviving spouse, the applicable share as determined in subsection (a) of this section shall 9 be reduced by one-half.

10          (c) Minimum Applicable Share. – In no event shall the applicable share of the 11 Total Net Assets be less than twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000).

12          (d) Death Taxes. – Death taxes shall be taken into account as a claim against the 13 estate in determining Total Net Assets only to the extent that such taxes are increased 14 because the assets received by the surviving spouse do not qualify for the federal estate
15 tax marital deduction pursuant to section 2056 of the Code, the North Carolina exemption
16 from inheritance and estate tax pursuant to G.S. 105-3(10) and (11), or similar provisions 17 under the laws of any other applicable taxing jurisdiction.

18 "§ 30-3.2. Definitions.

19          (a) 'Code' means the Internal Revenue Code in effect at the time of the decedent's 20 death.

21          (b) 'Death taxes' means any estate, inheritance, succession, and similar taxes 22 imposed by any taxing authority, reduced by any applicable credits against those taxes.

23          (c) 'Total Net Assets' means, after the payment or provision for payment of the 24 decedent's funeral expenses, year's allowances to persons other than to the surviving 25 spouse, debts, claims, and administration expenses, the sum of the following:

26           (1) All property to which the decedent had legal and equitable title 27 immediately prior to death;

28           (2) All property received by the decedent's personal representative by 29 reason of the decedent's death;

30           (3) All proceeds of insurance on the life of the decedent of which the 31 decedent is the owner, or which is payable to the surviving spouse;

32           (4) One-half of the value of any property held by the decedent and the 33 surviving spouse as tenants by the entirety, or as joint tenants with 34 rights of survivorship;

35           (5) The entire value of any property held by the decedent and another 36 person, other than the surviving spouse, as joint tenants with right of 37 survivorship, except to the extent that contribution can be proven by 38 clear and convincing evidence;

39           (6) The value of any property which would be included in the taxable estate 40 of the decedent pursuant to sections 2033, 2035, 2036, 2037, 2038, 41 2039, 2040, or 2042 of the Code;

- 1           (7) Any donative transfers of property made by the decedent to donees 2 other than the surviving spouse within three years of the decedent's 3 death, excluding:
4           a. Any gifts within the annual exclusion provisions of section 2503 5 of the Code; and 6           b. Any gifts to which the surviving spouse consented. A signing of 7 a deed, or income or gift tax return reporting such gift shall be 8 considered consent;
9           (8) Any proceeds of any individual retirement account, pension or profit-10 sharing plan, or any private or governmental retirement plan or annuity 11 of which the decedent controlled the designation of beneficiary, 12 excluding any benefits under the federal social security system; 13           (9) Any other Property Passing to Surviving Spouse under G.S. 30-3.3; and 14           (10) In case of overlapping application of the same property under more than 15 one provision, the property shall be included only once under the 16 provision yielding the greatest value.
17           (d) 'Nonadverse trustee' means a trustee who would be deemed nonadverse under 18 section 672 of the Code.

19 "§ 30-3.3. Property Passing to Surviving Spouse.

- 20           (a) Property Passing to Surviving Spouse. – For purposes of this Article, 21 'Property Passing to Surviving Spouse' means the sum of the following:
22           (1) One-half of the value of any property held by the decedent and the 23 surviving spouse as tenants by the entirety or as joint tenants with rights 24 of survivorship;
25           (2) The value of any interest in property (outright or in trust, including any 26 interest subject to a general power of appointment held by the surviving 27 spouse, as defined in section 2041 of the Code) devised by the decedent 28 to the surviving spouse, or which passes to the surviving spouse by 29 intestacy, or by beneficiary designation, or by exercise of or in default 30 of the exercise of the decedent's testamentary general or limited power 31 of appointment, or by operation of law or otherwise by reason of the 32 decedent's death, excluding any benefits under the federal social 33 security system;
34           (3) Any year's allowance awarded to the surviving spouse;
35           (4) The value of any property renounced by the surviving spouse; 36           (5) The value of the surviving spouse's interest, outright or in trust, in any 37 life insurance proceeds on the life of the decedent; 38           (6) The value of any interest in property, outright or in trust, transferred 39 from the decedent to the surviving spouse during the lifetime of 40 decedent for which (i) a gift tax return is timely filed reporting such gift, 41 or (ii) the surviving spouse signs a statement acknowledging such a gift.
42 For purposes of this subdivision, any gift to the surviving spouse by the 43 decedent of the decedent's interest in any property held by the decedent

1           and the surviving spouse as tenants by the entirety or as joint tenants 2           with right of survivorship shall be valued at one-half of the entire value 3           of that property at the time the gift is made; and 4           (7) The entire value of any property held in trust for the exclusive benefit of 5           the surviving spouse during the surviving spouse's lifetime, where the 6           trust requires a Nonadverse Trustee to utilize the principal and income 7           of the trust for the support and maintenance of the surviving spouse.

8           (b) Death Taxes. – The value of Property Passing to Surviving Spouse shall be 9           reduced by any death taxes that are a charge against or apportioned against the surviving 10           spouse on property interests included in Property Passing to Surviving Spouse.

11           (c) No Duplication. – In case of overlapping application of the same property 12           under more than one provision, the property shall be included only once, under the 13           provision yielding the greatest value.

14           "§ 30-3.4. Procedure for determining the elective share.

15           (a) Exercisable Only During Lifetime. – The right of the surviving spouse to file a 16           claim for an elective share must be exercised during the lifetime of the surviving spouse, 17           by the surviving spouse, the surviving spouse's agent under a power of attorney, or the 18           guardian of the surviving spouse's estate. If a surviving spouse dies before the claim for 19           an elective share has been settled, the surviving spouse's personal representative shall 20           succeed to the surviving spouse's rights to an elective share.

21           (b) Time Limitations. – A claim for an elective share must be made within six 22           months after the issuance of letters testamentary or letters of administration by (i) filing a 23           petition with the clerk of superior court of the county in which the primary administration 24           of the decedent's estate lies, and (ii) mailing or delivering a copy of that petition to the 25           personal representative of the decedent's estate. A surviving spouse's incapacity shall not 26           toll the six-month period of limitations.

27           (c) Time for Hearing. – Unless waived by the personal representative and the 28           surviving spouse, the clerk shall set the matter for hearing no earlier than two months and 29           no later than six months after the filing of the petition. However, the clerk may extend the 30           time of hearing as the clerk sees fit. The clerk shall give notice of the hearing to the 31           surviving spouse, personal representative, and to any person described in G.S. 30-3.5 32           who may be required to contribute toward the satisfaction of the elective share.

33           (d) Preparation of Tax Form. – In every case in which a petition to determine an 34           elective share has been filed, and within two months of the filing of the petition, the 35           personal representative shall prepare and submit to the clerk a proposed Form 706, 36           federal estate tax return, for the estate, regardless of whether that form is required to be 37           filed with the Internal Revenue Service. The clerk may extend the time for submission of 38           the proposed Form 706 as the clerk sees fit.

39           (e) Valuation. – The valuation of interests in property for purposes of G.S. 30-3.2 40           and G.S. 30-3.3 shall be determined as follows:

41           (1) Basic principles. – Each interest shall be valued at its fair market value, 42           reduced by all liens, claims, or encumbrances against the interest. For 43           interests passing at the decedent's death, valuation shall be as of the date

1           of death, and for interests transferred during the decedent's lifetime, 2           valuation shall be as of the date of transfer.

3           (2) Valuation of partial and contingent interests in property. – The valuation 4           of interests in property, outright or in trust, which are limited to 5           commence or terminate upon the death of one or more persons, upon the 6           expiration of a period of time, or upon the occurrence of one or more 7           contingencies, shall be determined by computations based upon the 8           mortuary and annuity tables set forth in G.S. 8-46 and G.S. 8-47, and 9           upon the basis of six percent (6%) of the gross value of the underlying 10           property in which those interests are limited. However, in valuing 11           interests passing to the surviving spouse, the following special rules 12           apply:

13           a. To the extent that the interest is dependent upon the exercise of 14           discretion by a fiduciary, the interest shall have no value unless 15           the spouse is serving as that fiduciary and the power to distribute 16           the trust property constitutes a general power of appointment 17           held by the spouse, as defined in section 2041 of the Code or the 18           fiduciary is a Nonadverse Trustee required to utilize the income 19           and principal for the exclusive benefit of the surviving spouse 20           during the surviving spouse's lifetime;

21           b. To the extent that the interest is dependent upon the occurrence 22           of any contingency that is not subject to the control of the 23           surviving spouse and that is not subject to valuation by reference 24           to the mortuary and annuity tables set forth in G.S. 8-46 and G.S.
25           8-47, the contingency will be conclusively presumed to result in 26           the lowest possible value passing to the surviving spouse.
27           However, a life estate or income interest that will terminate only 28           upon the earlier of the surviving spouse's death or remarriage will 29           be valued without regard to the possibility of termination upon 30           remarriage; and

31           c. To the extent that the valuation of an interest is dependent upon 32           the life expectancy of the surviving spouse, that life expectancy 33           shall be conclusively presumed to be no less than 10 years, 34           regardless of the actual attained age of the surviving spouse at the 35           decedent's death.

36           (3) Determination of fair market value. – The fair market value of each 37           asset comprising Total Net Assets shall be determined as follows:

38           a. Probate assets and assets passing to spouse. – The value of each 39           probate asset and Property Passing to Surviving Spouse, other 40           than assets held in trust, shall be established by the good faith 41           agreement of the surviving spouse and the personal 42           representative, unless either (i) the surviving spouse is the 43           personal representative, or (ii) the clerk determines that the

1            personal representative may not be able to represent the estate 2            adversely to the surviving spouse.

3            b. Trust assets. – The value of each trust asset shall be established 4            by good faith agreement of the surviving spouse and the trustee, 5            unless either (i) the surviving spouse is the trustee, or (ii) the 6            clerk determines that the trustee may not be able to represent the 7            trust adversely to the surviving spouse.

8            c. Other assets. – The value of any other asset shall be established 9            by the good faith agreement of the surviving spouse and each 10           person described in G.S. 30-3.5 who may be required to 11           contribute toward the satisfaction of the elective share because of 12           that person's interest in the asset, unless the clerk determines that 13           valuation under sub-subdivision d. of this subdivision is more 14           appropriate.

15           d. Use of disinterested persons. – If the value of any asset is not 16           established by agreement, the clerk shall appoint one or more 17           qualified and disinterested persons to determine a value of each 18           asset. That determination of the value of an asset shall be final 19           for the exclusive purposes of this Article.

20           (f) Findings and Conclusions. – After notice and hearing, the clerk shall determine 21           whether or not the surviving spouse is entitled to an elective share, and if so, the clerk 22           shall then determine the elective share and shall order the personal representative to 23           transfer that amount to the surviving spouse. The clerk's order shall recite specific 24           findings of fact and conclusions of law in arriving at the decedent's Total Net Assets, 25           Property Passing to Surviving Spouse, and the elective share.

26           (g) Appeals. – Any party in interest may appeal from the decision of the clerk to 27           the superior court, and in such event the procedure shall be the same as in other special 28           proceedings as now provided by law. If an appeal is taken from the decision of the clerk, 29           that appeal shall have the effect of staying the judgment and order of the clerk until the 30           cause is heard and determined by the superior court upon the appeal taken. Upon an 31           appeal taken from the clerk to the superior court, the judge may review the findings of 32           fact by the clerk and may find the facts or take other evidence, but the facts found by the 33           judge shall be final and conclusive upon any appeal to the Appellate Division.

34           "§ 30-3.5. Recovery of assets by personal representative.

35           (a) Recovery of Assets. – The personal representative is entitled to recover 36           proportionately from all persons, other than the surviving spouse, receiving or in 37           possession of any of the decedent's Total Net Assets a sufficient amount to enable the 38           personal representative to pay the elective share. The apportionment shall be made in the 39           proportion that the value of the interest of each person receiving or in possession of any 40           of Total Net Assets bears to Total Net Assets, excluding any Property Passing to 41           Surviving Spouse. The only persons subject to contribution to make up the elective share 42           are (i) original recipients of property comprising the decedent's Total Net Assets, and 43           subsequent gratuitous inter vivos donees or persons claiming by testate or intestate

1 succession to the extent those persons have the property or its proceeds on or after the 2 date of decedent's death, and (ii) a fiduciary, as to the property under the fiduciary's 3 control at or after the time a fiduciary receives notice that a surviving spouse has claimed 4 an elective share. A fiduciary shall not be considered to have notice until it receives 5 notice at its address as shown in the decedent's estate papers in the clerk's office or, if 6 there are no such papers or no such address is shown in those papers, at the fiduciary's 7 residence or the office of its registered agent.

8 The personal representative may withhold from any property of the decedent in his 9 possession, distributable to any person subject to apportionment, the amount of the 10 elective share apportioned to such person. If the property in possession of the personal 11 representative and distributable to any person subject to apportionment is insufficient to 12 satisfy the proportionate amount of the elective share determined to be due from that 13 person, the personal representative may recover the deficiency from that person. If the 14 property is not in possession of the personal representative, the personal representative 15 may recover from the person the amount of the elective share apportioned to that person 16 in accordance with this Article. If the personal representative cannot reasonably collect 17 from any person subject to apportionment the amount of the elective share apportioned to 18 that person, the amount not reasonably recoverable shall, with the approval of the clerk, 19 be apportioned among the other persons who are subject to apportionment. The 20 apportionment shall be made in the proportion that the value of the interest of each 21 remaining person bears to the total value of the interests of all remaining persons.

22 (b) Standstill Order. – After the filing of the petition demanding an elective share, 23 either the personal representative or surviving spouse may request the clerk to issue an 24 order that any recipients not dispose of any of the decedent's Total Net Assets pending 25 the hearing. The decision to issue such an order shall be in the discretion of the clerk.

26 (c) Satisfaction of Liability. – A person receiving or in possession of any of the 27 decedent's Total Net Assets may pay his proportionate elective share liability with respect 28 to that property by any of the following methods:

- 29 (1) Conveyance of the property included in the decedent's Total Net Assets;
- 30 (2) Payment of the value of his liability in cash or, upon agreement of the 31 surviving spouse, other property; or
- 32 (3) Partial conveyance and partial payment under subdivisions (1) and (2) 33 of this subsection, provided the value conveyed and paid is equal to his 34 liability.

35 (d) Expenses. – The expenses reasonably incurred by the personal representative 36 in connection with the appraisal or recovery of assets shall be apportioned as provided for 37 the elective share under this Article. If the personal representative finds that it is 38 inequitable to apportion the expenses because those expenses were incurred because of 39 the fault of one or more persons subject to apportionment, the personal representative 40 may direct other more equitable apportionment, with the approval of the clerk.

41 (e) Bond. – If property held by the personal representative is distributed prior to 42 final apportionment of the elective share, the personal representative may require the

1 distributee to provide a bond or other security for the apportionment liability in the form 2 and amount prescribed by the personal representative, with the approval of the clerk.

3 "§ 30-3.6. Waiver of rights.

4 (a) The right of a surviving spouse to claim an elective share may be waived, 5 wholly or partially, before or after marriage, with or without consideration, by a written 6 waiver signed by the surviving spouse.

7 (b) A waiver is not enforceable if the surviving spouse proves that:

8 (1) The waiver was not executed voluntarily; or

9 (2) The surviving spouse was not provided a fair and reasonable disclosure 10 of the property and financial obligations of the decedent, unless the 11 surviving spouse waived, in writing, the right to that disclosure."

12 Section 3. G.S. 29-30 reads as rewritten:

13 "§ 29-30. Election of surviving spouse to take life interest in lieu of intestate share 14 provided.

15 (a) In lieu of the intestate share provided in G.S. 29-14 or ~~29-21~~, G.S. 29-21, or of 16 the elective share provided in G.S. 30-3.1, the surviving spouse of an intestate or the 17 surviving spouse who ~~dissents from the will of a testator~~ has petitioned for an elective share 18 shall be entitled to take as his or her intestate share or elective share a life estate in one 19 third in value of all the real estate of which the deceased spouse was seised and possessed 20 of an estate of inheritance at any time during coverture, except that real estate as to which 21 the surviving spouse:

22 (1) Has waived his or her rights by joining with the other spouse in a 23 conveyance thereof, or

24 (2) Has release or quitclaimed his or her interest therein in accordance with 25 G.S. 52-10, or

26 (3) Was not required by law to join in conveyance thereof in order to bar 27 the elective life estate, or

28 (4) Is otherwise not legally entitled to the election provided in this section.

29 (b) Regardless of the value thereof and despite the fact that a life estate therein 30 might exceed the fractional limitation provided for in subsection (a), the life estate 31 provided for in subsection (a) shall at the election of the surviving spouse include a life 32 estate in the usual dwelling house occupied by the surviving spouse at the time of the 33 death of the deceased spouse if such dwelling house were owned by the deceased spouse 34 at the time of his or her death, together with the outbuildings, improvements and 35 easements thereunto belonging or appertaining, and lands upon which situated and 36 reasonably necessary to the use and enjoyment thereof, as well as a fee simple ownership 37 in the household furnishings therein.

38 (c) The election provided for in subsection (a) shall be made by the filing of a 39 notice thereof with the clerk of the superior court of the county in which the 40 administration of the estate is pending, or, if no administration is pending, then with the 41 clerk of the superior court of any county in which the administration of the estate could 42 be commenced. Such election shall be made:

- 1           (1) At any time within one month after the expiration of the time fixed for 2 the filing of a ~~dissent~~, the petition for elective share under Article 1A of 3 Chapter 30, or 4           (2) In case of intestacy, then within 12 months after the death of the 5 deceased spouse if letters of administration are not issued within that 6 period, or 7           (3) If letters of administration are issued within 12 months after the date of 8 the death of the deceased spouse, then within one month after the 9 expiration of the time limited for filing claims against the estate, or 10          (4) If litigation that affects the share of the surviving spouse in the estate is 11 pending, then within such reasonable time as may be allowed by written 12 order of the clerk of the superior court.

13 The notice of election shall:

- 14           (1) Be directed to the clerk with whom filed; 15           (2) State that the surviving spouse making the same elects to take under this 16 section rather than under the provisions of ~~G.S. 29-14 or 29-21~~, G.S. 29-17 14, 29-21, or 30-3.1, as applicable;
18           (3) Set forth the names of all heirs, devisees, legatees, personal 19 representatives and all other persons in possession of or claiming an 20 estate or an interest in the property described in subsection (a); and 21           (4) Request the allotment of the life estate provided for in subsection (a).

22 The notice of election may be in person, or by attorney authorized in a writing 23 executed and duly acknowledged by the surviving spouse and attested by at least one 24 witness. If the surviving spouse is a minor or an incompetent, the notice of election may 25 be executed and filed by a general guardian or by the guardian of the person or estate of 26 the minor or incompetent spouse. If the minor or incompetent spouse has no guardian, the 27 notice of election may be executed and filed by a next friend appointed by the clerk. The 28 notice of election, whether in person or by attorney, shall be filed as a record of the court, 29 and a summons together with a copy of the notice shall be served upon each of the 30 interested persons named in the notice of election.

31           (d) In case of election to take a life estate in lieu of an intestate ~~share~~, share or 32 elective share, as provided in either G.S. 29-14, 29-21, or ~~30-3(a)~~, 30-3.3(a), the clerk of 33 superior court, with whom the notice of election has been filed, shall summon and 34 appoint a jury of three disinterested persons who being first duly sworn shall promptly 35 allot and set apart to the surviving spouse the life estate provided for in subsection (a) and 36 make a final report of such action to the clerk.

37           (e) The final report shall be filed by the jury not more than 60 days after the 38 summoning and appointment thereof, shall be signed by all jurors, and shall describe by 39 metes and bounds the real estate in which the surviving spouse shall have been allotted
