1 A JOINT RESOLUTION HONORING THE LIFE AND MEMORY OF CLARENCE 2 LIGHTNER, PROMINENT CIVIC LEADER, POLITICIAN, AND 3 BUSINESSMAN.

4 Whereas, Clarence Everett Lightner was born on August 15, 1921, in 5 Raleigh, North Carolina, to Calvin Lightner and Mammie Blackmon Lightner; and

6 Whereas, Clarence Lightner was educated in the Raleigh public schools and 7 graduated from North Carolina Central University, where he was an outstanding athlete, 8 especially in football, and Echols College of Mortuary Science; and

9 Whereas, Clarence Lightner was a licensed mortician and funeral director and 10 successfully ran Lightner Funeral Home and Hillcrest Cemetery for many years; and

11 Whereas, Clarence Lightner represented southeast Raleigh on the Raleigh 12 City Council from 1967 to 1973; and 13 Whereas, on November 6, 1973, Clarence Lightner made history when he 14 was elected Mayor of Raleigh making him the first African-American Mayor of a 15 southern capital city and the first popularly elected Raleigh mayor since 1947; and

16 Whereas, on August 9, 1977, Clarence Lightner was appointed to the North 17 Carolina State Senate by Governor James B. Hunt, Jr.; and

18 Whereas, Clarence Lightner was active in numerous local, State, and national 19 organizations, serving as a charter member of the Southern Conference of Black 20 Mayors, the parent organization of the National Conference of Black Mayors; President
21 of the National Funeral Directors and Morticians Association; Chair of the National Life 22 Membership Foundation of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc., and as a member of the 23 Democratic National Committee and National Business League; and

24 Whereas, Clarence Lightner served as Chair of the Southeast Raleigh
25 Improvement Commission from 1993 to 2001, and in that capacity played a significant 26 role in completing the economic development study which serves as the current 27 guideline for developing southeast Raleigh, implementing the Small Business Success

1 Program, and creating the small business incubation program, which led to building, 2 opening, and operation of the Raleigh Business and Technology Center; and

3 Whereas, Clarence Lightner was a steadfast advocate for higher education,
4 serving as Chair of the Board of Trustees of Saint Augustine's College and as a member 5 of the Board of Trustees of North Carolina State University for 10 years; and

6 Whereas, Clarence Lightner was awarded honorary doctoral degrees from 7 Shaw University, Saint Augustine's College, and North Carolina Central University; and

8 Whereas, Clarence Lightner honorably served his country as a member of the 9 United States Army during World War II; and

10 Whereas, Clarence Lightner was active in the Davie Street Presbyterian 11 Church, where he served as an elder; and

12 Whereas, Clarence Lightner's devotion to improving the lives of others 13 earned him the respect and admiration of all who knew and worked with him; and

14 Whereas, Clarence Lightner's influence in his community and his keen ability 15 to negotiate made him a favorite among politicians and civic leaders, who often sought 16 his advice and counsel; and

17 Whereas, Clarence Lightner expressed many times his belief that no matter 18 what goals we set, what is essential is not the things we do separately, but what we hold 19 in common and what we get done together; and

20 Whereas, Clarence Lightner was a mentor to many African-American leaders, 21 who through the years greatly benefited from his wise guidance; and

22 Whereas, Clarence Lightner died on July 8, 2001; and

23 Whereas, Clarence Lightner was a loving husband to Marguerite Massey
24 Lightner and devoted father to Claire Lightner Sharpe, Debra Lightner Yancey, Bruce 25 Lightner, and the late Lawrence Lightner; Now, therefore,
26 Be it resolved by the House of Representatives, the Senate concurring:

27 SECTION 1. The General Assembly honors the memory of Clarence Everett 28 Lightner and expresses the appreciation of this State for his life, accomplishments, and 29 service.

30 SECTION 2. The General Assembly extends its deepest sympathy to the 31 family of Clarence Everett Lightner for the loss of their beloved family member.

32 SECTION 3. The Secretary of State shall transmit a certified copy of this 33 resolution to the family of Clarence Everett Lightner.

34 SECTION 4. This resolution is effective upon ratification.
