Referred to:

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT REGULATING THE SALE OF KEGS CONTAINING MALT BEVERAGE.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Article 10 of Chapter 18B of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 18B-1010. Keg sales of malt beverages.

(a) As used in this section a 'keg' is a container capable of holding at least seven and three-quarters gallons of malt beverage.

(b) The sale of malt beverages in kegs is subject to all of the following:

(1) Every keg of malt beverages supplied for sale by a malt beverage wholesaler to a permittee other than a hotel, restaurant, or private club shall be marked with a permanent identification number and shall also be tagged with a uniquely numbered and coded tag that meets all of the following requirements:

a. It shall be issued by the Alcohol Law Enforcement Division to the malt beverage retailer upon the payment of a fee that shall cover the cost of producing the tag.

b. It shall be used for a single sale of the marked keg.

c. It shall be removed from the keg upon the keg's return to the malt beverage wholesaler and maintained with the records of the sale.

d. It shall be returned to the Alcohol Law Enforcement Division semiannually for destruction.

(2) The retail seller of the keg shall require the retail purchaser of the keg to complete a form that is provided to the retail seller by the Alcohol Law Enforcement Division upon the payment of a fee covering the cost of producing the form. The form shall include all of the following:

- 1 a. The retail purchaser's name.
2 b. The retail purchaser's address.
3 c. The retail purchaser's telephone number.
4 d. The retail purchaser's date of birth, verified by viewing the 5 purchaser's drivers license.
6 e. The keg's identification number.
7 f. The keg's unique tag number or code.
8 g. The specific address or location where the malt beverage in the 9 keg will be consumed and the date or dates on which it will be 10 consumed.
11 h. The form will summarize all of the following information:
12 1. The requirements of this section.
13 2. The penalties for violating any provision of this section.
14 3. The penalties for providing malt beverages to underage
15 persons.
16 i. The signature of the retail purchaser.
17 (3) The retail purchaser shall return the coded tag along with the keg to the 18 retail seller. The retail seller shall remove the coded tag and return the 19 keg to the beverage wholesaler. The coded tag shall be retained by the 20 retail seller along with a copy of the signed form required by 21 subdivision (2) of this subsection for a period of three years from the 22 date of purchase. The form and the information contained on it are 23 public records.
24 (4) The retail seller shall collect from the retail buyer, in addition to any 25 other costs, a deposit in the amount of fifty dollars ($50.00)
26 guaranteeing that the coded tag shall not be defaced or removed and if
27 it is, then the retail seller shall keep the deposit as liquidated damages
28 for the defacing or removal of the tag.
29 (5) The retail seller shall report the following to the Alcohol Law
30 Enforcement Division and to its local law enforcement agency:
31 a. The failure of a retail buyer to return a keg.
32 b. The defacing of a coded tag attached to a returned keg.
33 c. The removal of a coded tag from a returned keg.
34 (c) Penalties. – The following penalties shall apply to violations of the provisions
35 of this section:
36 (1) Any person who defaces or removes the identification tag provided by 37 the Alcohol Law Enforcement Division on a keg or who possesses an 38 unlabeled or untagged keg shall be guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor
39 and upon conviction shall be fined not less than fifty dollars ($50.00),
40 imprisoned, or both in the discretion of the court.
41 (2) Any person who fails either to return a keg or to provide the retail
42 seller with the reason for the failure for the return of the keg within 30
43 days after purchase shall be guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor, and upon

1 conviction shall be fined not less than fifty dollars ($50.00),
2 imprisoned, or both in the discretion of the court.

3 (3) Any permittee that fails to obtain, record, maintain, or report the 4 information required by this section or fails in any other way to 5 comply with the requirements of this section shall have its permit
6 revoked by the Commission in accordance with the policies of the 7 Commission.

8 (4) If a person sold a malt beverage in compliance with the provision of 9 this section and any rules adopted pursuant to this section, then it shall 10 be a defense in any criminal prosecution or proceeding or civil or 11 administrative action under this section."

12 SECTION 2. This act becomes effective December 1, 2005, and applies to 13 offenses committed on or after that date.
