17 by this act. The collection of this fee shall be managed by the Office of the Commissioner of

4 information, the mortgage servicer's loss mitigation efforts, the borrower's capacity and interest
5 in staying in the home, and other appropriate factors, that further efforts by the State Home
6 Foreclosure Prevention Project offer a reasonable prospect to avoid foreclosure on primary 7 residences, the Commissioner shall have the authority to extend one time under this Article the 8 allowable filing date for any foreclosure proceeding on a primary residence by up to 30 days
9 beyond the earliest filing date established by the pre-foreclosure notice. If the Commissioner

18 provided to the database is not a public record, except that a mortgage lender and a mortgage 19 servicer shall have access to the information submitted only with regard to its own loans. Any

22 Courts for use by the State Home Foreclosure Prevention Project shall not be considered a 23 violation of G.S. 53B-8. A mortgage servicer shall be held harmless for any alleged breach of 24 privacy rights of the borrower with respect to the information the mortgage servicer provides in 25 accordance with this Article.

26 "§ 45-107. (For expiration date, see note) Foreclosure filing.

31 Article and that the periods of time established by the Article have elapsed.

32 (b) The clerk of superior court or other judicial officer may have access to the 33 pre-foreclosure database to confirm information provided in subsection (a) of this section. A

6 G.S. 45-101(1b), or if the loan is a ~~subprime-home~~ loan under ~~G.S. 45-101(4), G.S. 45-101(1b).~~
