A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO ELIMINATE THE PROVISION OF LAW THAT STATES ALLEGATIONS IN A DIVORCE COMPLAINT ARE DEEMED DENIED REGARDLESS OF WHETHER THE DEFENDANT FILES A PLEADING DENYING THE ALLEGATIONS, AND TO AMEND THE LAWS RELATING TO DOMESTIC VIOLENCE PROTECTIVE ORDERS, AS RECOMMENDED BY THE NORTH CAROLINA BAR ASSOCIATION; AND TO PROVIDE FOR TERMINATION OF CHILD SUPPORT WHEN A CHILD IS ENROLLED IN AN EARLY COLLEGE PROGRAM.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 50-10 reads as rewritten:

"§ 50-10. Material facts found by judge or jury in ~~divorce or annulment proceedings;~~ when notice of trial not required; procedure same as ordinary civil actions.

(a) Except as provided for in subsection (e) of this section, the material facts in every complaint asking for a ~~divorce or for an annulment~~ shall be deemed to be denied by the defendant, whether the same shall be actually denied by pleading or not, and no judgment shall be given in favor of the plaintiff in any such complaint until such facts have been found by a judge or jury.

(b) Nothing herein shall require notice of trial to be given to a defendant who has not made an appearance in the action.

(c) The determination of whether there is to be a jury trial or a trial before the judge without a jury shall be made in accordance with G.S. 1A-1, Rules 38 and 39.

(d) The provisions of G.S. 1A-1, Rule 56, shall be applicable to actions for absolute divorce pursuant to G.S. 50-6, for the purpose of determining whether any genuine issue of material fact remains for trial by jury, but in the event the court determines that no genuine issue of material fact remains for trial by jury, the court must find the facts as provided herein.
The court may enter a judgment of absolute divorce pursuant to the procedures set forth in G.S. 1A-1, Rule 56, finding all requisite facts from nontestimonial evidence presented by affidavit, verified motion or other verified pleading.

(e) The clerk of superior court, upon request of the plaintiff, may enter judgment in cases in which the plaintiff's only claim against the defendant is for absolute divorce, or absolute divorce and the resumption of a former name, and the defendant has been defaulted for failure to appear, the defendant has answered admitting the allegations of the complaint, or the defendant has filed a waiver of the right to answer, and the defendant is not an infant or incompetent person."

SECTION 2. G.S. 50B-2(c) reads as rewritten:

"(c) Ex Parte ~~Orders.~~ Orders.

- 1           (1) Prior to the hearing, if it clearly appears to the court from specific facts 2 shown, that there is a danger of acts of domestic violence against the 3 aggrieved party or a minor child, the court may enter orders as it deems 4 necessary to protect the aggrieved party or minor children from those acts 5 ~~acts. provided, however, that a~~
- 6           (2) A temporary order for custody ex parte and prior to service of process and 7 notice shall not be entered unless the court finds that the child is exposed to 8 a substantial risk of physical or emotional injury or sexual abuse.
- 9           (3) If the court finds that the child is exposed to a substantial risk of physical or 10 emotional injury or sexual abuse, upon request of the aggrieved party, the 11 court shall consider and may order the other party to (i) stay away from a 12 minor child, or (ii) ~~to~~ return a minor child to, or not remove a minor child 13 from, the physical care of a parent or person in loco parentis, if the court 14 finds that the order is in the best interest of the minor child and is necessary 15 for the safety of the minor child.
- 16           (4) If the court determines that it is in the best interest of the minor child for the 17 other party to have contact with the minor child or children, the court shall 18 issue an order designed to protect the safety and well-being of the minor 19 child and the aggrieved party. The order shall specify the terms of contact 20 between the other party and the minor child and may include a specific 21 schedule of time and location of exchange of the minor child, supervision by 22 a third party or supervised visitation center, and any other conditions that 23 will ensure both the well-being of the minor child and the aggrieved party.
- 24           (5) Upon the issuance of an ex parte order under this subsection, a hearing shall 25 be held within 10 days from the date of issuance of the order or within seven 26 days from the date of service of process on the other party, whichever occurs 27 later. A continuance shall be limited to one extension of no more than 10 28 days unless all parties consent. The hearing shall have priority on the court 29 calendar.
- 30           (6) If an aggrieved party acting pro se requests ex parte relief, the clerk of 31 superior court shall schedule an ex parte hearing with the district court
32 division of the General Court of Justice within 72 hours of the filing for said
33 relief, or by the end of the next day on which the district court is in session 34 in the county in which the action was filed, whichever shall first occur. If the 35 district court is not in session in said county, the aggrieved party may contact 36 the clerk of superior court in any other county within the same judicial 37 district who shall schedule an ex parte hearing with the district court division
38 of the General Court of Justice by the end of the next day on which said 39 court division is in session in that county.
- 40           (7) Upon the issuance of an ex parte order under this subsection, if the party is 41 proceeding pro se, the Clerk shall set a date for hearing and issue a notice of 42 hearing within the time periods provided in this subsection, and shall effect 43 service of the summons, complaint, notice, order and other papers through 44 the appropriate law enforcement agency where the defendant is to be 45 served."

46           SECTION 3. G.S. 50-13.4(c) reads as rewritten:

47           "(c) Payments ordered for the support of a minor child shall be in such amount as to 48 meet the reasonable needs of the child for health, education, and maintenance, having due 49 regard to the estates, earnings, conditions, accustomed standard of living of the child and the 50 parties, the child care and homemaker contributions of each party, and other facts of the 51 particular case. Payments ordered for the support of a minor child shall be on a monthly basis,

1 due and payable on the first day of each month. The requirement that orders be established on a 2 monthly basis does not affect the availability of garnishment of disposable earnings based on an 3 obligor's pay period.

4 The court shall determine the amount of child support payments by applying the 5 presumptive guidelines established pursuant to subsection (c1) of this section. However, upon 6 request of any party, the Court shall hear evidence, and from the evidence, find the facts 7 relating to the reasonable needs of the child for support and the relative ability of each parent to 8 provide support. If, after considering the evidence, the Court finds by the greater weight of the 9 evidence that the application of the guidelines would not meet or would exceed the reasonable 10 needs of the child considering the relative ability of each parent to provide support or would be 11 otherwise unjust or inappropriate the Court may vary from the guidelines. If the court orders an 12 amount other than the amount determined by application of the presumptive guidelines, the 13 court shall make findings of fact as to the criteria that justify varying from the guidelines and 14 the basis for the amount ordered.

15 Payments ordered for the support of a child shall terminate when the child reaches the age 16 of 18 except:

- 17 (1) If the child is otherwise emancipated, payments shall terminate at that time;
- 18 (2) If the child is still in primary or secondary school when the child reaches age 19 18, support payments shall continue until the child graduates, otherwise 20 ceases to attend school on a regular basis, fails to make satisfactory 21 academic progress towards graduation, or reaches age 20, whichever comes 22 first, unless the court in its discretion orders that payments cease at age 18 or 23 prior to high school graduation.
- 24 (3) If the child is enrolled in a cooperative innovative high school program
25 authorized under Part 9 of Article 16 of Chapter 115C of the General 26 Statutes, then payments shall terminate when the child completes his or her 27 fourth year of enrollment or when the child reaches the age of 18, whichever 28 occurs later.

29 In the case of graduation, or attaining age 20, payments shall terminate without order by the 30 court, subject to the right of the party receiving support to show, upon motion and with notice 31 to the opposing party, that the child has not graduated or attained the age of 20.

32 If an arrearage for child support or fees due exists at the time that a child support obligation 33 terminates, payments shall continue in the same total amount that was due under the terms of 34 the previous court order or income withholding in effect at the time of the support obligation.
35 The total amount of these payments is to be applied to the arrearage until all arrearages and fees 36 are satisfied or until further order of the court."

37 SECTION 4. This act is effective when it becomes law and applies to actions filed 38 on or after that date.
